BACKGROUND TO THE SHOW

The Helensville Agricultural & Pastoral Association has held the Helensville A&P Show almost every year since 1900, with only a polio epidemic and World War II causing a few years to be cancelled. As such, it is one of the longer running A&P Shows in New Zealand, with an enviable reputation and an unabashedly traditional feel.

The Helensville A&P Show has a proud history of promoting Helensville's agricultural and pastoral interests, and showcasing the best of the region. The Show is the largest annual event on Helensville's calendar and continues to build on a long and successful reputation of bringing the country to the town. The Show offers a unique hands-on learning experience and wonderful day out for all ages.

In recent years, the Helensville A&P Show has attracted record numbers of trade exhibitors and visitors. As one of the largest one-day shows in the Northern District (which stretches from Franklin in the South to the top of the North Island) and attracting up to 6,000 people and 3,000 competitor entries, the Helensville A&P Show enables trade exhibitors to....

- Generate new customers and sales leads for ongoing business.
- Promote products.
- Directly interact with a wide audience.
